

TUITION-FREE INCLUSIVE PRACTICES COURSE FOR VIRGINIA ADMINISTRATORS

The Virginia Department of Education (VDOE), in partnership with the Virginia Inclusive Practices Center at Radford University, is offering a tuition-free opportunity to participate in a technical assistance initiative focused on inclusive practices.

JUNE 29-AUGUST 14, 2026

7-WEEK ONLINE
GRADUATE COURSE

LIMITED TO 50
PARTICIPANTS

2 Part Series

PART 1 AND 2 OFFERINGS

We are excited to offer a Part Two option for those who have already completed this course. If you've taken EDSP 660 in a previous summer and want to continue building your knowledge and skills in inclusive practices, we highly encourage you to join this advanced section. If you have not, we are excited to invite you to part 1!

HOW TO APPLY

Complete this form as soon as possible and if you qualify, we will contact you with next steps in applying as a non-degree graduate student at Radford University!

<https://bit.ly/EDSP660Inclusion>

APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must be licensed building-level administrators, central office administrators, or teacher leaders employed by a Virginia public school division. Applicants should be in a position to have an impact on improving inclusive practices for students with disabilities.

